

Dear Faculty Members:

The Caribbean Robotics Academy's Media Tour is an essential component of our Puerto Rico Robotics Delegation. The purpose is to highlight the achievements and contributions of our students to the field of robotics. They will be sharing insights into their experiences, showcasing their projects, and promoting their educational institutions and our academy's involvement in the robotics community.

For this reason, we kindly request permission to excuse the following delegates.

We believe that their participation in this media tour is an excellent opportunity for them to develop their communication skills, gain valuable exposure, and contribute to the positive image of the robotics community. We assure you that these students will make every effort to fulfill any missed academic responsibilities and minimize any disruption to their studies.
